Message from the East

On the 21st of January, 2012, we had our installation of officers. It was a great turnout by family and friends, even though the weather was not so delightful. A special thanks goes to the RW DGM Stu Aronson and his installing suite for the outstanding job they did. Brethren, we have a new line of officers and they all are ready to work hard for you and our lodge. Please come and support them and your lodge. We appreciate new ideas so we may discuss them at our meetings. If you cannot make the meeting, please call or write to our secretary or one of our officers.

Also a special thanks to Brother Libby's wife Anita. She has made the Friday lunch a very special event for a lot of brothers and wives. We are looking forward to our next luncheon.

Respectfully,

WM Gerald J. Parziale

MORE GOOD NEWS

The Grand Secretary & Grand Treasurer are going to run training sessions for the Secretary and Treasurer of all the Lodges in the State. To accomplish this in the easiest way, they are doing it by District, or to make it easier, several Districts that are close together will meet on the same date. To that end District Six and District 1 have selected Monday April 30th at 7:00 p.m. in Rochester at Humane Lodge.

Please give this Due Notice to all Secretaries, Assistant Secretaries, Treasurers of the First Masonic District who are highly encouraged to attend this most important training session. This will help you update your information, get the latest form and learn the best way to do your jobs.
